Summarise each of your points in the order in which you have presented them.

State your main conclusions based upon the evidence you have presented.

Link your conclusions back to the title – make sure you have directly answered the question and that you have clearly presented your viewpoint on the topic (you must do this without saying ‘I’).

TOP TIP

Your conclusion will be about 10% of the whole assignment.

TOP TIP

You should not include any new information in your conclusion.
